

Florida State won all five singles matches in straight sets to turn back Concordia Seminary of St. Louis, 7-0, here yesterday.

It was the ninth victory in 13 dual tennis starts for the Seminoles, who meet Kentucky here tomorrow.

FSU's Rebel Bellamy, who had an 11-match victory string snapped by Miami's John Skogstad last Saturday, bounced back with an easy 6-2, 6-1 nod over Concordia's Phil Shroeder.

Rebel Bellamy, FSU, def. Phil Shroeder, 6-2, 6-1.

Ed Parula, FSU, def. Jack Elliott, 6-1, 6-2.

Gordie Smith, FSU, def. Pancho Herndt, 6-0, 6-0.

Howard Levy, FSU, def. Gene Bush, 6-2, 6-1.

Alex Sater, FSU, def. Emory Hingst, 6-1, 6-2.

Parula-Buddy McClain def. Elliott-Shroeder, 4-6, 6-1, 6-4.

Levy-Sater def. Herndt-Bush, 2-6, 6-1, 6-1.
