

Florida State's tennis team was upset today by Rollins, 6-3, in the season finale for both squads. The Tribe netters had beaten the Tars earlier this season, 8-1.

The Seminoles ended the season with a 16-5 record—most wins in a single season for an FSU net squad—and Rollins finished with a 10-5 mark.

Two Tribe seniors, Rebel Bellamy and Buddie McClain, finished their collegiate careers. Bellamy defeated Luis Dominguez, 6-1, 6-1 in the No. 1 singles match.
