

The FSU tennis team had no trouble with their Georgia Tech tennis opponents Monday but the lower brackets got beat.

FSU won the match, Tech's season opener, 6-3. The top four FSU men won their matches with ease. But Tech's Bill Moseley defeated Dave Mower 6-3, 7-5, and Yellow Jacket Donnie Lander whipped Ken Alcorn 11-9, 8-6. The third FSU doubles team was also beaten.

Lex Wood, FSU, defeated George Dickinson 6-2, 6-1. Don Capon, FSU, defeated Bill Mallory 8-6, 6-3. Paul Bennett, FSU, defeated Duke Douglas 6-4, 6-3. Don Monk, FSU, defeated Mike Van Houten 6-2, 6-2. Bill Moseley, Tech, defeated Dave Mower 6-3, 7-5. Donnie Lander, Tech, defeated Ken Alcorn 11-9, 8-6.

Wood-Bennett, FSU, defeated Dickinson-Mallory 6-1, 7-5. Capon-Monk, FSU, defeated Douglas-Moseley 6-3, 6-3. Van Houten-Mike Burne, Tech, defeated Alcorn-Dick Fisher 6-1, 6-2.