

PORT CORAL — South African Lex Wood leads Florida State tennis team into the Florida Intercollegiate Tournament, scheduled to start this morning. It runs through Sunday.

Wood, who has won 21 of 22 matches, is FSU's best netter. His only loss came when he split a pair of matches with Norm Perry of Ft. Eustis at the season's start. Perry is ranked 14th in the nation.

Wood will be teamed with Don Caton, Pensacola Junior College graduate, in the doubles.

The FSU team is 17-5 now, after going 2-2 in a four-match swing through Georgia early in the week. The Seminoles fell to Georgia Tech. and Georgia, whipped the Columbus Tennis Club and Mercer.

Other schools sending teams to today's meet were Florida Southern, Rollins, University of Florida, Miami and Florida Presbyterian. Miami, with a victory streak of 125 plus, is rated meet favorite.

CAPE CORAL (AP) — Favored University of Miami today entered the quarterfinals of the first annual Florida Intercollegiate Tennis Championships with 10 first-day wins under its belt.

The Hurricanes, who have posted 123 consecutive wins in the past six years, were followed by Florida State University with four victories.

Top singles match this morning featured Miami's John Karabasz against the Seminole's Lex Wood. The doubles were scheduled to start in the afternoon.

Karabasz advanced into the quarterfinals with a 6-0, 6-3, win over FSC's Bill Garnett. Wood defeated Dick Woltmann of Rollins, 6-2, 6-2.

Other teams participating include: Florida, Rollins, Florida Southern College and Florida Presbyterian.

CAPE CORAL (AP)—Finals of the Florida Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament turned into a University of Miami affair as expected and Rodney Mandelstam won the title over his teammate, John Karabasz, Sunday, 6-3, 5-7, 6-3.

Mandlestam teamed with John Hammill, also of Miami, to win the doubles over Lex Wood and Don Caton of Florida State, 6-4, 6-4.

Mandelstaf and Hammil had gained the finals by defeating Bill Tym and Jerry Pfeiffer of Florida, 6-4, 6-3. Wood and Caton went to the finals with a 6-4, 5-7, 6-3, win over Karabasz and Hugh Quinn of Miami.

Miami, which has won 123 consecutive intercollegiate matches, took team honors with 22 victories. Florida State was second with 8, Florida had 6, Florida Southern 3, Rollins 3 and Florida Presbyterian 0.
