

Florida State gave its top two players a rest, but easily defeated Valdosta State, 9-0 in tennis here yesterday.

Lex Wood and Don Caton, the number one and two men, were not needed as FSU took straight sets in singles and lost only one in doubles. Paul Bennett played in Wood's number one position, and sophomore Steve Guse played number two.

Caton and Don Monk, another varsity vet, did play one doubles match and won, 6-0, 6-0.

Wood and Caton, the former ranked among the top players in the nation, will be counted on heavily today, however, when the Seminoles meet a strong University of Florida team on the FSU courts at 10 a.m.
