A pair of Florida State tennis

s veterans, Don Caton and Don

Monk, teamed Saturday to put

r down a Georgia Tech doubles

r in their final set and win for e FSU its sixth victory of the year, 5-4.

Caton and Monk ran their doubles match into overtime: two other teams were finished and watched as Tech's Bill Mallory and Mike Lightbone went ahead 6-4. Caton and Monk won the second set 6-4, then finished off the Tech duo 6-2 in the closing set.

The win was the Seminoles' fourth by a 5-4 score and ran their record to 6-7. Victories in their matches here Monday with Hope College and Amherst would give Paul Scarpa's team a winning record to take with them on the road. The Tribe plays five straight away from home before the Florida Intercollegiates in Cape Coral.

Tech's highly-regarded team split up the six singles matches with FSU. Lex Wood, Paul Bennett, and Monk took the Seminoles'—share of the winning.

The Engineers Walter John son handed Woods the Seminot all-time great frem King saw | liams, South Africa, saygood scare in their singles match before Wood a master at part and won the day. Johnson matched Woods quickness and placed his shots well to rush to a 6-4 victory in the first set entitied les four 5-4 in the second before the Davis Cupper ralled to win it. 86 He polished off the reck star 6-1 in their last set. More theilling was Calon match with the Engineers Pau Speicher: A tall, strong veteral Speicher fought off Caton's challenge in the first set and won 8-6.

Their second set ran long

Caton never let up and matched Speicher game for game until the score stood tied at 16-16. Speicher's, still strong after nearly two hours, caughs Caton with two booming serves and went ahead 17-16.

Then, with their 34th game standing at Speicher's advantage, the Tech bomber placed a backhand shot behind Caton and it was over
