

Florida State's tennis team overwhelmed Rutgers 9-0 here Monday for its ninth victory of the season. The same teams meet again today at FSU's varsity courts, starting at 2:30 p.m.

Rutgers' Richard Robinson pushed State's Paul Bennett, who rarely fails to go the route, to three sets in the day's only extended match. Bennett, the Seminole captain, dropped the opening set, 3-6, but won the second and third, 6-3, 6-3.

Singles — Paul de Zeeuw, FSU defeated Vic Figlar, 6-4, 6-4. Paul Bennett, FSU defeated Richard Robinson, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3. Stewart Bruner, FSU defeated Ed Green, 6-2, 6-1. Terry Poore, FSU defeated Al Metzel, 6-0, 6-0. Steve Guse, FSU defeated Dennis Ross, 6-0, 6-1. Randy Cameron, FSU defeated Jerry Novak, 6-1, 6-2.

Doubles — De Zeeuw and Guse, FSU defeated Robinson and Green, 6-1, 6-0. Bennett and Poore, FSU defeated Figlar and Ross, 6-4, 6-1. Cameron and Steve Burt, FSU defeated Metzel and Novak, 6-4, 6-4.