

Paul deZeeuw and Cliff Murphy, FSU's no. 2 doubles team, rallied to beat Murray State's Mark Reznich and Larry Niemenuer 3-6, 14-12, 6-2 and boost Florida State to a 5-4 victory.

Steve Guse, a senior from North Little Rock, Ark., played no. 1 singles for the Tribe when deZeeuw turned up ill, and defeated Chicago champion Nick Barone 6-3, 6-2.

The win upped Florida State's record to 15-7. Murray State, which was undefeated last season, is now 4-2 this year.

SINGLES: Steve Guse FSU over Nick Barone 6-3, 6-2; Jim Novitsky MS over Paul deZeeuw 6-4, 7-5; Mark Reznich MS over Stew Bruner 6-3, 6-4; Terry Poore FSU over Larry Niemeyer 6-3, 6-2; Andre Cote MS over Clint Murphy 6-4, 6-2; Russ Langstroth FSU over Randy Hall 6-3, 6-1.

DOUBLES: Barone and Novitsky MS over Guse and Poore 8-6, 6-1; deZeeuw and Cliff Murphy FSU over Reznich and Niemeyer 3-6, 14-12, 6-2; Bruner and Clint Murphy FSU over Cote and Greenivelk 6-4, 6-2.