ATLANTA, Ga.—The Florida State tennis team dropped a 6-3 decision to Georgia Tech Saturday.

The Seminoles split the singles matches with Stu

Bruner, Dave Danielson and Clint Murphy copping their matches, but lost all three doubles.

The FSU doubles teams lost the three matches by just three sets.

Florida State is now 14-6. The next match is Monday at 10 against Miami in Tallahassee, followed by 2:30 matches with Murray State.
