

FSU's tennis team opened its home season, defeating Kalamazoo College 9-0 Monday morning, evening the year's record at 2-2.

Paced by the attacks of Dave Danielson and Herb Rapp, No. 1 and No. 2 players, FSU swept six singles encounters and three doubles matches. Danielson, Rapp, Al Procopio, John DeZeeuw, Roberto Marcher, and Scott Bristol were all dual winners against the Michigan squad.

Late week the netters played in the Deerwood Invitational at Jacksonville, competing with such U. S. stars as No. 3-ranked Clark Graebner and No. 2 Cliff Richey.

Rapp and Bristol won opening round matches, but bowed out in the next round. Rapp defeated Lex Hester, former FSU ace, 6-4, 6-1, before losing to Fred Roach 6-3, 6-2. Bristol beat John Lanahan 6-1, 6-2 before yielding to Orlando Zulueta 6-4, 6-4.

John DeZeeuw lost to No. 7 ranked Ron Holmberg 6-2, 6-4, while his brother Paul, an ex-Seminole, fell to Richey 6-3, SINGLES: Dave Danielson (FSU) defeated John Trump 6-2, 8-6; Herb Rapp (FSU) defeated John Brummet 6-1, 6-2; Al Procopio (FSU) defeated George Scott 6-3, 6-0; John DeZeeuw (FSU) defeated Bill Strick 6-2, 6-2; Roberto Marcher (FSU) defeated Rick Dess 6-2, 6-1; Scott Bristol (FSU) defeated Ted Blair 6-4, 6-1.

6-2. Procopio was a 6-2, 6-3 victim of Gardner Mulloy, while Marcher lost to Zulueta 6-3, 6-2.

The DeZeeuw brothers dropped a doubles contest to Graebner and Paul Cranis 6-3, 6-1, while Procopio and Marcher, and Rapp and Bristol captured first round doubles matches but lost out in the second round.

FSU continued its regular season this afternoon, meeting Kalamazoo in a return match at 3 o'clock. The Seminoles take on the University of Virginia Wednesday morning at 10 and Thursday travel to Mississippi State.
