

Florida State's tennis team ran its record to 21-5-1 with an impressive 5-4 victory over Georgia Tech here Saturday.

The Seminoles, with only two more matches on their schedule, had to take two of the three doubles matches to beat the Jackets.

One of the doubles wins was a big upset as FSU's Bobby Marcher and John DeZeeuw upset Larry Turville and Bob Speicher 7-5, 6-4. It was the first loss of the season for the highly-regarded Tech pair.

FSU's next meet is Thursday at Columbus (Ga.) State, Saturday at 10 a.m. the Seminoles play host to the University of South Florida in their last match of the year.
