PENSACOLA—The FSU tennis team went down to defeat 6-3 against Mississippi State in the second annual Bill Crow Memorial contest, played between these two universities each year. The match is named in honor of a former MSU player who resided in Pensacola before his death some years ago.

In last year's inaugural match the FSU netmen brought the trophy home with their win. This year the trophy is taken to the MSU campus.

Singles: Bob Caldwell (MSU) defeated John DeZeeuw 6-3, 8-6; Carlos Ayala (MSU) defeated Herb Rapp 2-6, 6-4, 6-4; Carlos Feldstedt (MSU) won over Scott Bristol 8-6, 6-0; Al Procopio (MSU) defeated Jim Boyce 4-6, 8-6, 6-4; Bobby Rend (MSU) whipped Dale Baker 6-3, 6-3; Hamid Faquir (FSU) won over Carl Oden 6-2, 4-6, 6-2.

DOUBLES: Caldwell and Boyce (MSU) defeated DeZeeuw and Procopio 6-4, 6-3; Ayala and Feldstedt (MSU) defeated Rapp and Bristol 6-4, 2-6, 6-4; Baker and Faquir (FSU) won over Miller and Rend 6-1, 4-6, 6-3.
