

Florida State's tennis team racked its sixth victory in a row Tuesday afternoon routing Northwestern University 8-1 at Tully gym courts.

Dan Lutz posted Northwestern's on match win when he defeated Herb Rapp in the opening singles event. Lutz is a junior Davis Cup member.

The Seminole netters face Northwestern again this afternoon, but FSU will be without its No. 1 singles player Rapp who along with assistant coach Bobby Marcher are competing in the Dixie Invitational tourney in Jacksonville.

SINGLES: Dan Lutz (NW) beat Herb Rapp (FSU) 6-3, 6-3; John DeZeeuw (FSU) beat Steve Vegina (NW) 7-7, 6-1; Al Procopio (FSU) beat Doug Conant (NW) 6-2, 6-0; Scott Bristol (FSU) beat John Vegosen (NW) 6-2, 6-3; Hamid Faquir (FSU) beat Ken Cohen (NW) 7-5, 6-4; Bill Baker (FSU) beat Paul James (NW) 6-1, 6-1.

DOUBLES: DeZeeuw and Procopio (FSU) beat Lutz and Vegina (NW) 3-6, 6-4, 6-4; Rapp and Bristol (FSU) beat Cohen and Conant (NW) 2-6, 6-1, 6-2; Mick Basinger and Baker (FSU) beat Vegosen and James (NW) 3-6, 6-1, 6-4.