

Florida State's tennis team racked its seventh triumph in a row Wednesday, ripping Northwestern 7-1 at the Tully gym courts.

The Seminole netters, now 8-1, are slated to play Calvin College of Grand Rapids, Mich., this afternoon at 3 p.m.

SINGLES — Don Lutz (N) beat John DeZeeuw (FSU) 6-4, 3-6, 6-4; Al Procopio (FSU) beat Steve Vagina (N) 7-5, 6-2; Scott Bristol (FSU) beat Doug Conant (N) 6-2, 3-6, 6-3; Hamid Faquir (FSU) beat John Vagofen (N) 6-3, 4-6, 6-2; Dale Baker (FSU) beat Ken Cohen (N) 6-2, 3-6, 6-3; Mick Vasinger (FSU) beat Paul James (N) 6-1, 6-2.

DOUBLES — DeZeeuw-Procopio tied Lutz-Vagina 6-4, 3-6, 12-12; Bristol-Baker beat Cohen-Conant 7-5, 6-2; Vasinger-Bob Pfaender beat Vagofen-James 6-2, 6-4.