

FSU Falls In Tennis

Florida State's tennis team suffered its first home loss of the season yesterday, losing 6-3 to Southern Illinois.

"We played well below our level," said coach Randy Jobson. "We just had a letdown from the long road trip and SIU played better than they had in their last couple of matches."

FSU, now 6-4, plays Kalamazoo College here Friday and Samford Saturday.

SINGLES: Dane Petchul (SIU) def. Relean Genois 6-7, 6-3, 7-6; Ricardo Bernd (FSU) def. Wayne Cowley 6-2, 7-5; Jorge Ramirez (SIU) def. Charles Diggans 2-6, 6-4, 6-4; Scott Kidd (SIU) def. Enrique Andrade 5-7, 6-1, 6-3; Felix Ampon (SIU) def. Steve Diamond 7-6, 6-2; Juan Ortiz (FSU) def. Kristian Cee 4-6, 6-3, 6-4.

DOUBLES: Petchul - Cowley (SIU) def. Genois - Ortiz 6-3, 6-3; Ramirez - Kidd (SIU) def. Bernd - Diggans 5-7, 6-4, 6-4; Diamond - Gordon Jones (FSU) def. Cee - Scott 7-6, 6-1.