Special to the Democrat

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Florida State rallied with victories in two of the three doubles matches here yesterday and toppled South Carolina 5-4.

The two teams split in singles with one of Florida State's defeats coming on a default. Ricardo Bernd injured a foot in the second set and had to drop out.

Bernd came back, however, and teamed with Charlie Diggins for a 7-6, 3-6, 6-2 doubles victory.

The Seminoles, 5-4, are scheduled to play Clemson today.
