

Seminole netters finish third

GAINESVILLE — The FSU men's tennis team finished third in the 10-team Florida Intercollegiate Tennis Championships during the weekend behind first-place Florida and Rollins College.

In No. 1 singles, FSU's Marco Abilhoa defeated Mike Minot of USF before losing to Jim McLemore of UF in the finals. Seminole Hernan Luque won the No. 2 singles title by defeating Arturo Solaun of Jacksonville in the semifinals and Colin McAlpin of UF in the finals.

The Seminoles' No. 3 player, John McLean lost in the semifinals but at No. 4, Darrell Weiner defeated John Arciero of Rollins and David Wilson of UF to take the title.

Abilhoa and Luque were eliminated in the semifinals of No. 1 doubles but the No. 2 doubles team of Jack Heiss and Kevin Green won it all with straight set wins in the semis and finals. McLean and Weiner, FSU's No. 3 doubles team lost in the semifinals.
