

FSU netters win twice in tourney

MOBILE — The Florida State men's tennis team won a pair of matches Friday to advance to the semifinals of the eight-team University of South Alabama Fall Invitational.

The Seminoles defeated the Mobile All-Stars (a team of Mobile-area pros and amateurs) 9-0, then came back to defeat Louisiana Tech 9-0.

FSU will play Auburn today at 2 p.m., with the winner facing the winner of the South Alabama-Northeast Louisiana semifinal match in the championship Sunday at 9 a.m.

FSU 9, Mobile All-Stars 0

Singles — John McLean (FSU) def. Arciero 6-1, 6-3; Hernan Luque (FSU) def. Scott Thielke 6-0, 6-2; Scott Blessing (FSU) def. Greg Hilley 6-1, 6-0; Joey Rive (FSU) def. John Poling 6-0, 6-3; Jeff Horine (FSU) def. Rincher 6-2, 6-3; Marcos Abilioa (FSU) def. Haichew 6-3, 6-1.

Doubles — Rive-Luque (FSU) def. Arciero-Tom Jones 7-6, 6-3; Abilioa-McLean (FSU) def. Thielke-Hilley 7-6, 6-4; Blessing-Horine (FSU) def. Rincher-Haichew 6-0, 6-1.

FSU 9, La. Tech 0

Singles — McLean (FSU) def. Tom Clay 6-3, 6-2; Luque (FSU) def. Roger Gonsalves 6-1, 6-0; Blessing (FSU) def. Keith Thomasos 6-2, 6-1; Rive (FSU) def. Andre Peters 6-3, 6-7, 6-1; Horine (FSU) def. Trey Kent 6-2, 6-4; Abilioa (FSU) def. Bryant Wattles 6-7, 6-0, 6-1.

Doubles — Rive-Luque (FSU) def. Clay-Kent 6-4, 6-1; Abilioa-McLean (FSU) def. Thomasos-Gonsalves 6-7, 6-3, 6-1; Blessing-Horine (FSU) def. Wattles-Peters 6-7, 6-0, 6-1.