

FSU wins tournament

Florida State's men's tennis team won the University of South Alabama Fall Invitational tennis tournament Sunday, beating host South Alabama 7-2 in the finals/

FSU won four games in the tournament, its first of the fall.

The Seminoles lost only three matches out of 36 in the three-day event which included eight teams.

Singles — Ahmed McElmy (USA) d. John McClean 6-2, 6-3; Hernen Luque (FSU) Ivica Bulgevic 7-6, 7-6; Gowan Lanahan (USA) d. Scott Blessing 6-1, 6-2; Joey Rivie (FSU) d. Russell Mathey 2-6, 6-0, 6-2; Jeff Horine (FSU) d. Tommy Jones 6-4, 6-4; Marco Abiliohoa (FSU) d. John Toland 6-3, 7-5. DOUBLES — Luque-Rivie (FSU) d. McElmy-Lanahan 7-6, 7-6; McLean-Abiliohoa (FSU) d. Murphy-Hugo Sabini 6-2, 7-5. Blessing-Horine (FSU) d. Buljevic-Poling 6-4, 6-0.