TALLAHASSEE, FL--Losing only three sets in the entire match, the Florida State men's tennis team rolled to an easy 8-1 victory over Yale at the

Don Loucks
~~Sally~~ Courts yesterday.

The Seminoles pushed their record to 3-1 on the year while Yale dropped to 0-1.

"This is our first match having everyone together," said FSU head coach Richard McKee. "Everyone played well. They all played hard and they went out and got the job done."

FSU was paced by the return of seniors Joey Rive and Geoff Roper to the lineup. Both won their singles matches in straight sets and then teamed together in doubles and got the same results.

The Seminoles will next be action when they host the Seminole Invitational February 22-24 at the Loucks Varsity Courts.
