FLORIDA STATE SOFTBALL

CHAPEL HILL, NC-- Florida State began play in the Tar Heel Invitational softball tournament in impressive fashion with a 5-0 blanking of the University of North Carolina-Wilmington and an 8-1 drubbing of the University of North Carolina-Charlotte in the first day of the tournament hosted by the University of North Carolina.

The combination of dominate pitching and good hitting carried FSU to the victories. Florida State hurlers totalled 21 strike outs in the two games, while Seminole bats pounded out 20 hits. In the first game, Marla Looper
