

Forbes in nationals with a 6.1

Special to the Democrat

BATON ROUGE, La. - Jesse Forbes became the seventh Florida State runner to qualify for the NCAA Nationals with a 6.1 time in the 60 yard dash at the LSU All-Comers meet here Saturday night.

Forbes ran a 6.1 in his qualifying heat as well as the finals. This was the last chance to qualify for the nationals, held in Detroit, Mich., beginning Friday.

Earl Carruthers missed by qualifying for the 1000 yard run by only two-tenths of a second with a 2:11.1 time. He and teammate Tyrone Frederick tied for first in that event.

Glenn Kettenacker missed qualifying for the 600 by half a second with a 1:11.1 time. He finished seconds. Danny Smith finished second to LSU's Allen Misher in the 60 yard high hurdles. Smith has already qualified for that event with a collegiate record 6.9.
