

Auburn trounces FSU in track meet

Auburn University, its ace sprinter Harvey Glance winning two narrow victories over Florida State star Mike Roberson, defeated the Seminoles 91-61 Saturday in a dual meet here.

With the electronic timing device not working, both Glance and Roberson ran a hand-clocked 9.9-second hundred meters, with Glance barely finishing first.

That time is a personal best for Roberson and a new FSU record, but was not considered official because of the timing device breakdown.

The 200 meter event, run earlier, was just as close, with the two running an electronic timed 20.6.

"It was a super race," said FSU track coach Dick Roberts. "Mike led all the way until the last step. Glance just out-leaned him at the end for the victory."

Roberts, not displeased with the Seminoles' effort, said that Auburn was "on the rebound" because they had lost to arch-rival Alabama last week for the first time.

"They were just too much for us," he said, "but our kids put up a real good fight."

The coach said he was particularly pleased with the performances of discus thrower Brad Cooper, long jumper Kevin Johnson, and 5000 meters runner Donnie Cook.

Cooper set his fourth school record in five weeks, hurling the discus 184' 2", to beat his old mark of 180' 7".

Johnson won the long jump with a mark of 24' 4", good enough to beat Auburn's Glance and Tony Easley.

"He's just doing a real good job week in and week out," said Roberts of Johnson. "Kevin's doing the things he's not supposed to be doing."
