TRACK DUO QUALIFIES FOR INDOOR MEET —

Florida State's Kim Batten and Larry Carr qualified for next week's NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championship in Indianapolis by beating their qualifying standards in the Florida Fast Times Indoor Track meet in Gainesville Saturday. Batten, a sophomore, won the triple jump with at 41 feet, 4 inches. Carr, a junior, cleared 17 feet, 4 inches in finishing second in the men's pole vault. Batten had previously qualified in the 55-meter hurdles. Carr was 1988 qualifier and competed only his second indoor competition of the year due to a back injury.
