2003 NCAA Men's and Women's Indoor Track & Field Championships Ouotes

Men's 60-meter dash

Julien Dunkley, East Carolina

"I have to dedicated this race to my brother who was in a bad motorcycle accident. It has made me more focused and made me train harder than ever. Running my fastest time of the year and winning this race is a great way to end my senior season."

Men's 200-meter dash

Leo Bookman, Kansas

"This race was sweet to me. I've been working hard and it's been paying off with this win today. I thank coach for teaching me all that he has and working with me. I also than God for the talent he has given me to run. Coming into the race I expected to win. I thought I would run a faster time than I did though. This shows me that hard work does pay off because my freshman year I ran twenty-two flat and now I'm down to a 30.54 by my junior year. With God's will I will do this all over again next year."

Men's 400-meter run

Gary Kikaya, Tennessee

"Being in the slow heat, I really got to run my race and not worry about getting bumped around or anything. I just ran at my own pace and was fortunate enough to come away with a win. This win does surprise me but coach has prepared me really well for this time. I'm thankful for him and what he has done for me. Seeing my old roommate Justin Gatlin with the World Championships helps me and motivates me to run and work harder."

Men's 800-meter run

Nate Brannen, Michigan

"This was way more than I expected. I try to keep my goals and myself realistic. I was a little worried about my spot to start the race because U thought I was too far out. Entering the last couple of laps I thought I was in the wrong spot but I guess it was the spot for me."

Men's Mile

Chris Mulvaney, Arkansas

"Last year I got caught in the inside of the pack and it ended up hurting me. This year I decided to take the lead and stay in front and be patient. Hopefully this will set things up for our team to win tonight."

Men's 3,000-meter run

Alistair Cragg, Arkansas

"I knew it was going to be a different race than the 5K run last night. I knew I was going to win it the whole last lap and I was just watching Daniel (Lincoln) to see how he was going to finish. I laid everything on the line and came away with a win. We did it for Coach Mac (McDonnell). We wanted to give him this title and now we've done it."

Men's 5,000-meter run

Alistair Cragg, Arkansas

"The race has an unusual end. The crows disappeared and I could feel my heart beat. I just knew I had to get there. The crowd kept me going. On the last lap, I knew I could do it. I didn't do all of that work for nothing."

Men's 60-meter hurdles

Jabari Greer, Tennessee

"I came today with all the best intentions and my family told me I could do it. I didn't think I had the cleanest race, but I held on to be on top and I'm so excited. I thank God for this win and I couldn't do anything without Him. I've always dreamed of being number one and now I've done that and I'm going to just keep going."

2003 NCAA Men's and Women's Indoor Track & Field Championships

Men's 4x400-meter relay

Kelly White, LSU

"We came here to run. This was totally what we expected. We came in with the mind set that the races up until this point don't matter. My teammates did a great job and I have to give all the glory of winning this race to God."

Men's Distance Medley Relay

Adrian Blincoe, Villanova

"We came in here, after I was hurt in the early part of the season, and just wanted to retain our DMR title. We focused on this race rather than on individual races and anything tomorrow will be a bonus. This is the first race I've ever won in the home stretch and it was because everyone on the team did their jobs and executed."

Men's High Jump

Jerrick Holmes, Cal. State-Northridge

"All I know is, when I saw him (Adam Shunk, North Carolina) miss it, I didn't care how high it was, I knew I needed to make it on my first jump and I did."

Men's Pole Vault

Brad Walker, Washington

"This is my first title, and it's exciting. Nineteen feet is my personal best so that is a benchmark."

Men's Triple Jump

Allen Sims, USC

"I came in here very nervous because I didn't know what the other guys could do. I came here focused and jumped a PR. It was about time because I knew I could do it. It was just a matter of doing it."

Men's Shot Put

Carl Myerscough, Nebraska

"I was fresher in this meet than any other of the others. It is frustrating to have been so close to the record, but I am very happy to get the win."

Men's National Championship Winning Coach

John McDonnell, Arkansas

"The men have given a tremendous performance. It looks a lot better tonight than last night.

"I was worried mostly about South Carolina. After Otukile Lekote (South Carolina) finished seventh (in the men's 800-meter run), I knew they were out of it."

(About the Chris Mulvaney mile) "Chris ran a text book race. I like to see confidence (in waving to the crowd), it shows he isn't afraid. I told him to run smart and he did. He is excellent at carrying out instructions."

(On the win) "After two years without a championship, it is great. We are back where we like to be. After not winning, you think you are losing your magic. At the beginning of the year, I told the team they were special."

(On Alistair Cragg) "He is a great athlete with the potential to be one of the all-time greats."
