

FSU's Girls Split a Pair

Special to the Democrat

CARROLLTON, GA. — Florida State University girl's basketball team split two games Saturday as they lost to host West Georgia College 64-43 and then came back to defeat Auburn 53-52 in the West Georgia Roundrobin Invitational Tourney.

In that first game, Marlene Graham paced the girls with 16 points with support coming from a pair of ten point efforts by Liz White and Linda Crutchfield.

The second game saw the Lady Seminoles headed by Graham and Yvette McKinney with 14 points each.

The gal's will carry a 3-5 record into Friday's round robin with Flagler, South Florida and Florida competing.
