

FSU Girls Beat Barry

Special to the Democrat

MIAMI — Florida State's girls basketball team won its opening round game of the state girls basketball tournament here Tuesday, beating Barry College of Miami 50-33.

Marlene Graham and Yvette McKinney scored 13 points apiece and Liz White grabbed 12 rebounds to spark the victory.

FSU, now 7-5, was to play the University of Florida this morning, and a victory would result in an afternoon match against Flagler College.

The tournament, being played at Miami - Dade North Community College, runs through Thursday night.
