

Lady Seminoles Reach Finals

Special to the Democrat

MIAMI — Florida State's girls basketball team, led by Marlene Graham and Yvette McKinney, breezed into the finals of the state tournament with two victories here yesterday.

FSU slammed Florida 52-36 yesterday morning behind Graham's 18 points and McKinney's 17. The lady Seminoles came back later and trimmed Flagler College 54-35. Graham scored 18 in this one and McKinney 12.

Florida State was to face either Flagler or Florida today at 12:30 in the finals. Seven teams were entered in the senior division, and the winner advances to the Southeastern regionals next week in Winter Park.
