Special to the Democrat

MIAMI—Florida State's Lady Seminole basketball team swept into the finals today by drubbing Miami-Dade Downtown 73-51 Thursday afternoon in the Miami-Dade North Invitational.

The Lady Seminoles were scheduled to meet the winner of the Dade North and Dade South game late Thursday. That final was set 12:30 today.

Chris Brokas led the Lady Tribe victory with 18 points. Teammate Bobbie Parr added 17 and pulled down 16 rebounds. Linda DeJong was also in double figures with 10 points.
