

FSU women lose 79-65

Albany State's women's basketball team upended Florida State 79-65 Monday night in Tully Gym despite a 20-point effort by FSU's Cherry Rivers.

Albany State, now 11-4 on the season, led just 36-33 at halftime before coming untracked in the second period. Venitia Hines and Vanessa Coverson shared game scoring honors with 21 points each.

Rivers was also the Lady Seminoles' leading rebounder with 10, followed by Valerie Nelson with nine. Coverson led Albany State in that department with 14.

As a team, Albany State won the board battle 46-44.

FSU is now 6-6 and the season, and the Lady Seminoles travel to Rome, Ga. for an invitational tournament Friday and Saturday at West Georgia College.
