

FSU women cagers lose

Special to The Democrat

ROCK HILL, S.C. — Florida State's Lady Seminole basketball team finished fourth in the Winthrop tournament here Saturday night after suffering a 115-57 loss to South Carolina.

The loss dropped the Seminoles to 14-11 on the season.

FSU plays at Troy State Wednesday before returning for two home games Friday and Saturday nights against Central Community College of Ocala and South Florida, respectively.