

Southern Miss women beat FSU

Special to the Democrat

HATTIESBURG, Miss. — Led by forward Faye Hodges' 19 points and a balanced scoring attack, Southern Mississippi defeated Florida State 74-67, in a Metro Conference women's collegiate basketball game Thursday night.

Southern Mississippi, which improved to 11-8 overall and 3-4 in the Metro, got 13 points from Bridgett Winston, 11 from Sharon Varnado and 10 points each from Trina Goudeau and Kathy Jones.

The Lady Seminoles, now 11-9 and 3-4 in the Metro Conference, were paced by Bev Burnett's 19 second-half points and Sarah Hall's 20 points.

It was FSU's first game since starting forward Lorraine Rimson was suspended for the rest of the season.

FSU also played without Valerie Garrett, Sheri Kaminski and Gus-sie Clark, who have the flu.
