

Virginia Tech 97
Florida State 81

BLACKSBURG, Va. — Florida State allowed the most points it has in a game this season.

The final points total eclipsed the 94 points given up to Memphis State last Saturday night in Memphis.

It was a tight contest for the first half and well into the second half with the lead never more than five points either way. The halftime score was 42-41 in favor of the Lady Hokies. Virginia Tech made its move after senior center Sarah Hall hit a jump shot from the key to make it 66-65. At that point, the Lady Seminoles fell into a shooting slump while Virginia Tech got hot.

"We were never in the game defensively tonight," said head coach Marynell Meadors. "When we score more than 80 points in a game, we should be able to win. It seemed that we were struggling offensively while opponents had it easy."

With the loss, FSU drops to 6-16 and 2-7 in conference play. Virginia Tech moves to an overall mark of 12-13 and 3-7 in Metro play, moving ahead of FSU into fifth place.

Florida State continues its conference road schedule Monday night when the Lady Seminoles meet conference-leading South Carolina in Columbia, S.C.
