FSU WOMEN'S BASKETBALL OPENS WITH VICTORY

November 27, 1995

BOCA RATON, Fla. -- Led by Carla Williams' 16 points, the Florida State Lady Seminole basketball team opened the 1995-96 season with a 69-46 win over the Florida Atlantic Lady Owls at FAU Gymnasium Monday night. With the loss, FAU falls to an even 1-1 on the young season.

The Lady Seminoles shot just over 50 percent for the game, marking the second time in their three competitions this season (including the exhibition games) the squad has recorded such a feat. FSU did not shoot over 50 percent in all 30 games last season.

From the start, the Lady Seminoles came out aggressive, especially on defense. Florida State held FAU to just 17 first-half points on .214 shooting from the field while the Lady Owls went 5-for-14 from the free throw line in the first 20 minutes. The Lady Seminoles shot .433 from the field and as they headed to the lockerroom with a 14-point advantage (31-17). Williams led all scorers in the first half with 13 points.

Williams had the hot hand in the first half for the Lady Noles, but it was Latrice McLin who got things going in the final 20 minutes. McLin scored 11 second-half points to tally 15 for the game. A very physical game, Williams and freshman Kristy White both fouled out of the contest. FSU committed 27 fouls resulting in 20 points off free throws for FAU.

"Twenty-seven fouls is just way to many to have," FSU Coach Marynell Meadors said. "Our team was disappointed that we fouled so much and played out of position so much, but for such a young team, we are very happy with the win."

Ten of FSU's 12 players saw action, with 11 of them scoring. McLin grabbed a career-high 12 rebounds and coupled with her 15 points, recorded her first career "double-double." Lysa Moorefield's 12 boards was also a career high. As a team, FSU outrebounded the Lady Owls, 55-26.

"I think what you see is that we are finally gaining depth at every position," Meadors said. "It's young depth right now, but there's nothing we can do about that until we get some game experience. But I've been real pleased with this team so far."

Florida State will travel to Miami for the Dial Soap Classic this weekend. The squad will face rival-Florida at 5 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 1.
