LADY SEMINOLES FALL TO GEORGIA TECH

ATLANTA, Ga. -- The Florida State women's basketball team fell to 5-12 and 0-8 in the Atlantic Coast Conference with a 97-65 loss to the Georgia Tech Lady Jackets at Alexander Memorial Coliseum tonight. The win marked Georgia Tech's first ACC win of the season and snapped a six-game losing streak. The Lady Jackets are now 9-6 overall and 1-6 in the league.

Florida State started out strong and had a four point lead early at 7-3 at 17:24. The next eight minutes were played close as the game was tied at 18 with 9:56 to go. But the Lady Seminoles failed to score for the next three minutes as the Lady Jackets went on a 14-0 run and took a 32-18 advantage. Florida State would get no closer than 11 points in the remainder of the half as Georgia Tech scored six straight points in the final 1:06 of the half to take its largest lead of the game at 50-31.

Florida State could get no closer than 14 points (58-44 at 14:27) in the remainder of the game as Georgia Tech continued its strong offensive outing. The Lady Jackets shot 54 percent for the game as they outscored the Tribe 15-3 in the final two minutes. Florida State committed 21 turnovers in the game as the Georgia Tech defense picked off 13 steals.

Carla Williams once again led all FSU players with 16 points and a team-high nine rebounds. Georgia Tech had all five starters score in double figures, led by Kisha Ford's 22 points.

"We just didn't play defense," FSU coach Marynell Meadors said. "We just can't allow a team to score 97 points on us. They scored so many layups and you just can't let that happen."

Florida State will host 13th-ranked Duke on Saturday, Jan. 27th at 6 p.m. The game will be played at Tully Gymnasium and will be televised by Sunshine Network.
