FLORIDA STATE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL FALLS TO DUKE

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -- The Florida State Lady Seminole basketball team fell to 5-13 and 0-9 in Atlantic Coast Conference play with a 61-47 loss to the 12th ranked Duke Blue Devils. The Blue Devils won their fifth straight game and improved their record to 17-3 and 6-2 in the conference.

Florida State's Aletha Penn gave the Seminoles an early lead of 8-6 with a layup at the 16:03 mark. The Blue Devils regained the lead with 13:41 remaining in the first half and never trailed again. Florida State kept the game close throughout and came within 3 points with 6:25 remaining in the second half, but Duke went on a 17-6 run to end the game.

Duke was led by junior forward Tyish Hall who tallied a double-double with 18 points and 12 rebounds. The Blue Devils had two other players scoring in double figures, as well, with Kira Orr netting 15 and Windsor Coggeshall scoring 12.

Sophomore Lysa Moorefield led Florida State with 12 points and 6 rebounds, while teammate Carla Williams also grabbed 6 rebounds.

FSU Coach Marynell Meadors opted to start her five returnees from last season. It was the first ACC game in which this combo started, but it won't be the last.

"I think that we found some really good chemistry tonight with this lineup, Meadors said. "It will be something that we will probably try to stick with for a while to gain some momentum."

FSU will host Georgia Tech on Wednesday, Jan. 31 at 7 p.m. at Tully Gymnasium.
