FLORIDA STATE NOTCHES FIRST ACC VICTORY IN TRIPLE OT

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -- It may have taken 15 extra minutes, but the Florida State women's basketball team defeated Georgia Tech 90-85 to record its first Atlantic Coast Conference victory of the season this evening at Tully Gymnasium. With the triple-overtime victory, FSU improves to 6-13 overall and 1-9 in ACC and snaps a nine-game losing streak. Georgia Tech falls to 11-7 overall and 2-7 in the league.

"This was a fantastic game," FSU coach Marynell Meadors said. "I am so proud of our team. Number one to get our first ACC win and number two, to go three overtimes to get it."

The Lady Seminoles came out extremely aggressive, hitting the boards and hustling for loose balls as they fought for every possession, an effort that has seemed to be missing in the last few games. FSU took an early lead and maintained it for most of the first half as the Noles built a 10-point at the 12:18 mark. FSU was leading 31-24 with 2:55 to go in the first half when Georgia Tech closed out the half with a 6-0 run to pull within just a point, its closest margin of the half.

Florida State was the first to score in the second half, but it took the Tribe three minutes to do so as Latrice McLin hit a jumper in the lane at 17:05 for two of her 10 points. FSU outscored the Lady Jackets 11-2 for the first six minutes and took a 42-32 advantage at the 13:54 mark and later built its largest lead of the game at 12 points at 52-40 on a Wendy Hampton three-pointer with 9:14 to go. But Florida State had one of its scoring droughts and didn't score again until the 3:25 mark during which time Georgia Tech tied the contest. FSU led 56-54 with 12 seconds to go, but Georgia Tech's Kisha Ford hit a jumpshot with five seconds left to force the game into overtime.

"We just played tentative," Meadors said. "When we got that 12-point lead, we just didn't know how to win. But we gained our composure and made things happen."

The lead switched hands throughout the first overtime, but Georgia Tech took its largest lead of the night at 66-63 in the final 16 seconds. But FSU's Wendy Hampton wasn't ready for game to end and with three defenders in her face, hit a 24-footer, three of her career-high 19 points, from the right corner to force yet another overtime.

"We run that play at the end of every practice," Hampton said, "but I have never made it. You wouldn't believe how many times I've air-balled that shot. I just said a quick little prayer to God and it went in."

Florida State would never trail again, even though the game would be forced into a third OT.

"We worked absolutely too hard to lose that game," Meadors said. "We deserved to win that one, we played really, really well."

Williams led all FSU players with 21 points and recorded her seventh double-double of the year with a game-high 13 rebounds.

Florida State will travel to Clemson for a 7 pm contest on Saturday, Feb. 3.
