LADY SEMINOLES FALL TO NO. 17 CLEMSON

CLEMSON, S.C. -- The Florida State women's basketball team fell 70-53 to the 17th-ranked Clemson Lady Tigers at Littlejohn Coliseum this evening. With the loss, FSU falls to 6-14 and 1-10 in the ACC while the Lady Tigers improved to 15-3 and 6-3 in the league.

Florida State controlled the tone of the game in the first half and led by as many as five points early at 11-5. But Clemson went on an 8-0 run to take a 14-11 advantage. Florida State kept up its aggressive play and eventually regained the lead. The Lady Seminoles had their largest lead of four points at 27-23 when Clemson's Amy Geren turned a three point play. From that point on in the first half, the game saw three lead changes and two ties as Clemson went into the lockerroom, leading 36-33.

The second half belonged to Clemson. The Lady Tigers opened the half outscoring Florida State 13-4 over the first seven minutes. The Noles could get no closer than seven the rest of the way as Clemson closed out the game outscoring FSU 19-9.

"I have to give Florida State credit," Clemson coach Jim Davis said. "They came in very determined and took it to us. They are on their way."

FSU sophomore center Lysa Moorefield scored 10 of the Tribe's 20 second-half points and led all scorers with 16 points and eight rebounds. Carla Williams also scored in double digits with 10 points. For Clemson, Jeanette Davis scored 12 points in the second half for a total of 14 as four Lady Tigers tallied double figures.

"I don't think the final score indicates the type of the game that it was," FSU coach Marynell Meadors said. "I thought we did some really good things out there tonight. We were able to establish our inside game very early and we're very consistent inside, but we were very cold from the perimeter due largely to Wendy Hampton being in early foul trouble. But I thought that everybody that came in played well."

Florida State will next host North Carolina on Friday, Feb. 9 at 7 p.m. at the Leon County Civic Center.
