FLORIDA STATE TAKES IT TO THE TAR HEELS

TALLAHASSEE, FL -- The Florida State Lady Seminoles shot a season-high 62 percent from the field for the game and 81 percent in the second half as FSU upset North Carolina, 73-64. The win was the first time the Lady Seminoles beat North Carolina in Tallahassee since January 25, 1992. FSU won for the second consecutive time at home and improved its record to 7-14 overall and 2-10 in the conference. North Carolina, who was tied for second in the ACC, dropped to 12-9 overall and 7-4 in the conference.

FSU led 26-23 at halftime and never trailed again. The Lady Seminoles then stretched their lead to 51-39 at the 8:50 mark of the second half. North Carolina went on a 12-2 run to pull within two points at the 5:41 mark, but could not get any closer. Florida State's Carla Williams scored 10 points in the final 5:41 to seal the victory.

Williams led all players with 25 points and 9 rebounds, and FSU's Aletha Penn netted a career-high 18 points.

"It just feels so good to win," Penn said. "I didn't realize that I had that many points, I just wanted to win so bad."

FSU coach Marynell Meadors expressed her exhilaration following the game.

"It was a great win for this program," Meadors said. "I am so proud of these players. I knew it was coming, I didn't know when, but I knew we would get one."

North Carolina was led by sophomore forward Tracy Reid's 22 points and 5 rebounds. Florida State will play at NC State on Sunday at 2 p.m. The game can be heard on WVFS 89.9.
