FLORIDA STATE PUTS A SCARE INTO NO. 20 CLEMSON

CLEMSON, S.C. -- Despite leading by as many as seven points in the second half, Florida State fell to 5-9 and remained winless at 0-5 in the Atlantic Coast Conference with a 74-63 loss to No. 20 at Littlejohn Coliseum this evening. The Lady Tigers improve to 12-2 overall and 3-2 in league play.

Florida State hung with the defending ACC champions through the first five minutes of the game and trailed by just two at 10-12 when Clemson Coach Jim Davis called a 20-second timeout. The break seemed to work for the Lady Tigers as they scored the game's next six points to take an eight point lead. Florida State's aggressive play however allowed the Tribe to pull within three at 21-18 at 10:09. Florida State would not score again until 4:47 but found themselves down only seven at 27-20 as Clemson had a scoring drought of nearly five minutes themselves. Down 29-20, FSU went on a 10-0 run, including two three-pointers by Wendy Hampton, and took its first lead of the game at 30-29. Arleshia Davidson's basket at the buzzer gave the Tribe a 34-31 lead at the break. Clemson did not score a field goal in the final 9:06 of the half as the Lady Tigers' final six points were off of free throws.

Florida State continued its aggressive play in the second half and built a lead of seven twice in the first four minutes of the half. Clemson pecked away at the FSU advantage and regained the lead at 9:35 at 55-54. The Tribe trailed by no more than three points until the 5:19 mark when Clemson's Angie Salyer scored to put the Lady Tigers up 62-57. FSU's Aletha Penn had two three pointers roll in and out and Jen Robinson missed two fouls shots in the three minutes prior to that as FSU failed to score since a Hampton three-pointer that tied the game at 57-57. Clemson outscored Florida State 17-6 in the final eight minutes of the game for the 11 point victory.

"I expect us to be in this position," FSU coach

Chris Gobrecht said. "So this game didn't surprise me at all. We have been making good progress. We have gone to being 40 down in games to being right in a game. You can see the improvment, you can see it coming. The next step we have to make is to win. They made their shots with the game on the line and we didn't. It was that clear."

Florida State was led by Jen Robinson's game-high 18 points while Clemson's Jeanette Davis had 15 for the Lady Tigers.

"I thought Jen Robinson did an excellent job at point tonight," Gobrecht said. "She played intelligently and really was a leader for the team."

The Lady Seminoles' next outing will be vs. Maryland at 7 p.m. on January 15 at Tully Gym.
