

FSU women dominate meet

Special to the Democrat

GAINESVILLE — Florida State's women's cross country team scored a perfect 15 points Saturday to dominate the Women's University division at the University of Florida Invitational.

The host team was second with 42 points.

Leading a sweep of the top six places was freshman Kathy Moore, who set a course record of 17:50 over the 5,000-meter course. Behind Moore were Rose Giampalmo, Nancy McCormac, Kerri Heffernan, Lisa Kinch and Pam Ledbetter.

Running under the banner of the Florida State Track Club, the FSU "B" team won the Women's Open division, led by Laura Ledbetter's second-place finish.
