

DADE-NORTH won the Rollins Women's Invitational golf tournament by nine strokes over the host, 660-669 at Winter Park. Florida was third at 674. Then came Palm Beach JC (710), Florida State (723) and the University of Miami (795).

Hollis Stacy of Rollins was the low individual with a 153 two-day total. Florida International's Pat Bradley beat Dade-North's Karen Dremonas in a sudden-death playoff for second after each finished regulation play at 155.