

FSU women lead tourney

Special to The Democrat

NEW PORT RICHIE- The Florida State University women's golf team is leading the Beacon Woods Invitational by five strokes after the first day's action.

FSU has a 318 team score, followed by Georgia at 323, Rollins at 325, the University of South Florida at 348 and Auburn at 354.

The tournament winds up today.

Colleen Walker of FSU is tied with Donna Noonan and Sherry Kamens of U.Ga. for the individual lead at 77. FSU's Linda Lupica trails by one at 78. Patti Belcher, Laurie Rusk and Debbie Warford round out the FSU scores with 80, 83 and 92, respectively.