

FSU women second in golf

HAINES CITY — The Lady Seminole golf team was in second place, 15 strokes behind the Lady Gators after the first round in the State Women's Golf Championship at the Greenleaf Country Club.

FSU's Marla Anderson is leading the tournament with a 71 followed by UF's Kerry Scanlon with 72 and Laurie Rinker with 73.

Florida is leading the field with a team total of 295. Florida State shot 310 while Florida International had 315. Miami and South Florida both have 325.

At Grenelefe

COLLEGE DIVISION

Individual leaders: *Marla Anderson, FSU, 71-76-79—226; Kerry Scanlon, Florida, 72-80-74—226; Lynn Connelly, Florida, 74-74-78—226; Nancy Rubin, FIU, 76-76-77—229; Laurie Rinker, Florida, 73-80-77—230; Pat Rizzo, Miami, 81-74-78—233; Stacey West, Florida, 76-79-79—234; Michelle Guilbault, FSU, 80-77-77—234; Kelley Spooner, FIU, 77-82-76—235; Pam Elders, Miami, 81-80-75—236; Pam Darmstadt, Rollins, 79-82-76—237; Betsy Barrett, Miami, 82-79-77—238.

Team totals: Florida 916 (Scanlon 226, Connelly 226, Rinker 230, West 234, Ferrante 244); x-Florida International 944 (Rubin 229, Spooner 235, Blair 241, Hodel 242, O'Hare 249); FSU 944 (Anderson 226, Guilbault 234, Young 240, Geddes 247, Scanlon 254); Miami 952 (Rizzo 233, Elders 236, Barrett 238, Lawrence 245, Quintan 263); South Florida 973 (Gaddy 242, D. Headings 243, R. Headings 244, Corrigan 251, MacCurraich 253); Rollins 989 (Darmstadt 237, Baird 244, Wickley 253, Jennings 255, Roche 265).

*-Won sudden-death playoff, first hole.

x-Won playoff for second place.

FSU women second in golf

HAINES CITY — Florida State's Lady Seminole golf team is still in second place after the second round of the women's state tournament at the Greenleaf Country Club.

FSU freshman Marla Anderson leads the pack with a 147 total, one stroke ahead of Florida's Lynn Conley.

Individually for FSU, Anderson shot a 76, Michelle Guilbault a 77, Jane Geddes a 79, Lisa Young an 80 and Nancy Stanton an 89.

Florida leads with a team total of 608. Florida State has 622, Miami-Dade 624 and Florida International 628.

FSU women finish second

HAINES CITY — The University of Florida won the women's state intercollegiate golf championship here Sunday. Florida State and Florida International tied for second.

Florida State freshman Marla Anderson won the individual title over Florida's Terry Scanlon and Lynn Connelly. Anderson had a 71-76-79—226 total.