Lady Gators win Suncoast golf

The Lady Gators golf team successfully defended its Suncoast Invitational title Wednesday at Tarpon Springs.

Florida held a 10-stroke lead heading into the final round at the par-72 Innisbrook Country Club course and never relinquished it. In fact, the Gators improved their lead to 20 strokes ahead of second-place Southern Methodist.

The Gators finished with a three-day total 901 (307-296-298), and SMU finished at 921 (311-308-302). Miami finished third at 930 (306-311-313), followed by South Florida's 933 (313-312-308).

Penny Hammel of Miami won the individual title with a 218 (71-72-75). Florida's Deb Richard finished third at 221 (73-73-75).
