SEMINOLES FINISH NINTH AT LADY GATOR GOLF INVITATIONAL

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – Sophomore Kristin Tamulis shot a career-low five-under par 221 and finished in a tie for 12th place in the individual standings at the Lady Gator Invitational at the University of Florida golf course. Tamulis' career-best score helped the Seminole women's golf team to a ninth place finish in the event.

Florida State, which is ranked 44th in the nation in the most recent rankings by GolfWeek.com, held a top-10 team position throughout the entire tournament. The Seminoles were in sixth place after round one, fifth place following the second round and finished in ninth place. Florida State finished ahead of four teams (South Carolina, North Carolina, Mississippi State and Wake Forest) that are ranked ahead of it in the national rankings.

Tamulis (Naples, Fla.) bettered by one position her previous career best finish of sixth place and score of 223 at the Lady Seminole Classic in 1999. She was very consistent throughout the event shooting 73-74-74 to total 222. Her first round score of 73 is tied for her second lowest collegiate score.

Senior Louise Wright (Ipswich, England) also performed well in finishing 23rd in the individual standings. She earned an even-par score of 72 in the second round and totaled an eight-over par 228 for the tournament.

Freshman Carrie Sordel (Windermere, Fla.) earned the best single round score of her career, one-over par 72, in the 2nd round. She finished with a career-best score of 231 (15-over par). Freshman Alison Curdt (Ellisville, Mo.) also earned her career-low tournament score of 236.

Florida State competes in its next event at the Ryder/State Championship in Miami from March 30-April 1.

The University of Florida women's golf team finished 11th in the 29th-Annual SunTrust Lady Gator Invitational at the University of Florida Golf Course on Sunday. The Lady Gators finished with a three-day score of 923 (311-307-305). Auburn won the tournament by 10 strokes with an overall score of 868 (292-290-286) and Georgia finished second with a score of 878 (293-292-293).

Individually for Florida, sophomore Jeanne Cho (Boulogne, France/St. Stephen's Episcopal School) led the Lady Gators with a tournament total of 228 (77-75-76), tying her for 32nd overall. Sophomore Sam Zausner White (Rockville, Md./The Bullis School) finished strong on the final day with an even-par 72 to finish tied for 46th with an overall score of 232 (82-78-72). Third on the team was sophomore Brittany Straza (Fort Myers, Fla./Lehigh), with a total score of 233 (79-76-78), tying her for 48th. Freshman Amanda Dick (Clearwater, Fla./Countryside) and junior Kim Best (Avon Park, Fla./Daytona Beach Community College) rounded out the playing five for the Lady Gators. Dick tied for 58th with a tournament total of 236 (75-80-81) and Best tied for 65th with a three-day score of 237 (80-78-79). Florida red shirt freshman Joy Stephenson (Fort Myers, Fla./Fort Myers) played individually, finishing in a tie for 75th with a tournament total of 242 (78-83-81).

Summer Sirmons from the University of Georgia won the individual championship after beating out Celeste Troche of Auburn and Young-A-Yang of Tennessee in a sudden death playoff.

○ Lady Gators will be back in action March 16-18, when they travel to Columbia, S.C. to participate in the Jay Gamecock Classic.
