FINAL ROUND OF NCAA EAST REGIONAL WOMEN'S GOLF TOURNAMENT CANCELLED AFTER RAIN AND DARKNESS; FLORIDA STATE FORCED TO END COMPETITION IN A TIE FOR 15TH PLACE

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – The tail end of the final round of the NCAA Eastern Regional Women's Golf Championship was cancelled due to a rain delay and darkness with seven teams, including Florida State, still on the course. The event was delayed nearly two hours between 3 and 5 p.m. because of thunder, lightning and rain.

Florida State was in a tie for 15th-place when the final portion of the tournament was cancelled. Under tournament rules, all teams and individuals at that point must withdraw from the event. Each of the seven teams forced to withdraw finished in a tie for 15th-place in the final standings.

Two Seminoles, Carrie Sordel and Kelley Henderson, were able to complete the event before darkness fell on Finley Golf Course on the campus of the University of North Carolina. With seven teams and 29 individual having to end play prematurely, Sordel moved finished into a tie for 73rd-place while Henderson finished in 77th-place.

Duke, the No. 1 ranked team in the nation, claimed the East Regional Championship with a seven-over team score of 871. Auburn, Georgia, South Florida, New Mexico, San Jose State and Pepperdine will join the Blue Devils at the NCAA Championship from this tournament. A total of eight teams from the East Regional Championship will compete for the national championship with eight teams from the Central and West Regional Championships.

Duke freshman Virada Nirapathpongorn, the ACC Rookie of the Year, claimed medallist honors with a seven-under par score of 209. A Blue Devil teammate, Candy Hannemann, finished second with a four under par score of 212.

Florida State, under head coach Debbie Dillman, enjoyed a fantastic spring season. The Seminoles earned four top-10 team finishes in five events and finished third at the Atlantic Coast Conference Championship. In addition, Tamulis and Wright earned All-ACC honors for the first time in their careers. Except for Wright's graduation and impending professional career, Florida State returns nearly every player on its roster for the 2001-02 season, including four members of their starting lineup and five of their top six scorers from the season.

CHAPEL HILL, NC - Led by the top two individual golfers, Duke retained its second round lead to win this weekend's NCAA East Regional. The Blue Devils fired a team total 294 to finish the tournament at 871, eight shots ahead of second place Auburn. The Tigers trailed the Blue Devils by seven shots entering the final round but carded a team total 295 to finish at 879. Georgia finished third at 887, while South Florida shot a team total 293 to move into fourth place at 889. New Mexico was fifth at 902, and South Carolina dropped to sixth at 904. San Jose was seventh at 907, while Pepperdine rounded out the top eight at 908. The top eight teams qualify to move on to the NCAA championship on the weekend of May 23-26 in Howie-in-the-Hills, Florida. The Tar Heels finished tied for fifteenth along with six other teams, as thunder and lightning forced the tournament to be called before they could complete their rounds. As a result, NCAA rules stipulate that all those teams not finished at the time were forced to withdraw and thus ended the tournament tied for fifteenth place.

Duke's Virada Nirapathpongorn took the individual title with a three-day total of seven-under-par 209. Fellow Blue Devil Candy Hanneman finished second just three shots back at four-under-par 212, while South Carolina's Kristy McPherson was third at two-under-par 214. Georgia's Laura Henderson finished fourth at one-over-par 217 after a final round 70, while Pepperdine's Lindsey Wright and Auburn's Diana Ramage round out the top five tied at two-over-par 218. Wake Forest's Marta Prieto and Vanderbilt's Meredith Ward also advanced to the NCAA championship, as the top two individuals that were not on one of the top eight qualifying teams. Prieto finished the weekend tied for seventh place at three-over-par 219, while Ward finished the day tied with TCU's Shannon Barr, in tenth place at six-over-par 222. However thunder and lightning precluded a playoff. Thus, NCAA rules stipulate that the tie is broken by the lowest final round. Ward fired a 72 on Saturday, while Barr carded a final round 75.

For the Tar Heels, the inclement weather kept all five golfers from finishing their rounds and as a result, they were withdrawn from the tournament.

The tournament was played at Finley Golf Course, which features a par 72 6,211 yard layout.
