FLORIDA STATE WOMEN'S GOLF TEAM FINISHES FOURTH AT ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP; SEMINOLES' TAMULIS EARNS FOURTH PLACE FINISH

CLEMMONS, N.C. -- The Florida State University women's golf team finished in fourth place at the 14th annual Atlantic Coast Conference championship tournament at the Salem Glen Country Club. Seminole junior Kristin Tamulis finished in a tie for fourth place in the individual standings marking the second consecutive season she has finished in the top four in the ACC championship. She finished in third place in last year's event.

The Seminoles finished fourth in the team standings as they finished with a 911 team score. Their 911 score was their third best tournament score of the spring season. Florida State has finished in the top four in each of their last three tournaments.

Tamulis (Naples, Fla.) finished in a tie for fourth place in the individual standings with Kristina Engstrom of Duke. Tamulis and Engstrom carded identical scores of four-over par 220. The finish marked Tamulis' fourth consecutive top-10 finish and seventh of her career.

Senior Alison Zimmer (Tallahassee, Fla.) finished in 11th place with a score of 226. The finish was her third consecutive top-15 individual finish and the 226 score was the second best of her career. Zimmer shot a career-best 225 at the Ryder/Florida Championships in early April.

Sophomore Carrie Sordel (Windermere, Fla.) finished in 18th place to give Florida State a trio of top-20 finishers. Sordel came within one stroke of her career best round with a 72 in Friday's first round.

Sophomore Alison Curdt (St. Louis, Mo.) finished in a tie for 23rd-place and sophomore Katie Quinney (Atlantic Beach, Fla.) finished in a tie for 28th-place.

Florida State will now await word on its possible selection to the NCAA Regional championships May 9-11. If selected, it would mark the second consecutive season the Seminoles have advanced to post-season play.

DUKE EARNS SEVENTH CONSECUTIVE ACC WOMEN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Senior Candy Hannemann comes back to take medalist honors

CLEMMONS, N.C. — The second-ranked Duke Blue Devils captured the ACC Championship title for the seventh consecutive year. Duke shot two-over par for the three-day tournament to secure the title. Candy Hannemann finished first with an even par score. Virada Nirapathpongorn of Duke and Nuria Clau of Wake Forest finished tied for second place with a 217 tournament score. Duke had all five players to finish in the top 10.

Wake Forest took second place honors for the third year. The Deacons were led by Clau and Ashley Hoagland who finished tied for ninth place. NC State turned out a much improved ACC performance from last year. The Wolfpack improved to third this year from a sixth place standing in 2001. Colby Cobb finished tied for ninth place.

Florida State turned in a fourth place standing after the final round. The Seminoles shot 911 in the three-day tournament with leader Kristin Tamulis finished in a tie for fourth place. North Carolina finished fifth with a final round score of 306. The Tar Heels were led by Ashley Prange who shot even par 72 today. Maryland finished in sixth place with a 939-team score. Marie Harper led the Terrapins finishing in a tie for 16th place.
