FLORIDA STATE SOCCER FALLS TO NEBRASKA

October 8, 1995

LINCOLN, NEB -- The Florida State University women's soccer team dropped a 6-0 decision to the Nebraska Cornhuskers in a non-conference matchup Sunday afternoon. The loss pushes FSU's record to 4-7-1 overall while Nebraska, a second year program, improves to 7-4 and extends its winning streak to six games.

The Seminoles recorded just one shot and one cornerkick in the match, but goal keeper Melissa Juhl notched 15 saves in the effort. Nebraska recorded 45 shots and 14 corners on the afternoon, as the Huskers were held to just two goals in the first half but turned it up in the second 45 minutes and tallied four goals.

"The match was disappointing for us after playing so well in yesterday's game," FSU coach Heather Kerby said. "Inconsistency comes with being young. Despite the loss, the players are learning more and more each time they take the field."

The Tribe, who are still looking for their first league win, heads back into Atlantic Coast Conference action with a 4 p.m. contest at Virginia on Friday, Oct. 13.
