

Lady softball set

The Florida State's women invitational softball tournament gets under way Friday afternoon with two games and winds up Saturday afternoon.

All games will be played at Messer Field.

The Lady Seminoles, who won two games from Lake City Community College Wednesday, will play host to Auburn, Florida, Flagler, South Florida and Florida

Tech in the tournament.

Tournament games are booked for 1 and 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Play will resume Saturday morning at 10 o'clock with a champion crowned in a 3 p.m. game.

In Wednesday's games against Lake City, the Lady Seminoles counted on the home run to win by scores of 10-2 and 14-7 to run their record to 15-5 for the season.
